

Policy Regarding Citizen Complaints in Zoning Related Matters

County staff shall accept complaints from citizens regarding possible infractions of county ordinances via telephone, email, written letter or personal visit. The identity of the complainant shall not be required. Complainants may provide identification if they wish for staff to provide follow up contact or any investigation into the complaint.